

British Values

1st – 7th June

Individual liberty

There are lots and lots of different jobs and we all get to choose which one we do when we are older. We might choose a job because we want to help people or we might choose to do something that we love.